

"I TRAVELED FAR AND TOO LONG"

By KT Chun, the senior secretary for Liberal Studies and a Ph.D. candidate in the Sociology department.

I traveled far and too long.

A little tired,

I murmur

But, where has my Korea gone?

I saw Kant and Hegel

And I heard "Enlightenment"

But, where has my soul gone?

On 5th Avenue,

I stood and watched

My Korean was lost in translation.

I still remember

The cry of a woman in the airport,

She said

"My dream was so sad."

I never meant

To feel New York's winter

So cold and homesick

My shelter,

Liberal Studies

You Foucaultians and party animals

I see you, yet miss you still.
